Course Description: Basic introduction to spoken English to freshmen non-English major students. Through direct instruction, lecture, modeling, pair, group work activities, video, listening and reading activities, students will be given opportunities to practice their English skills and to develop new skills

Course Objectives:

1. To bolster student confidence in speaking English to communicate and have conversations. Furthermore, to encourage students to seek fun and exciting ways to improve their English outside of class
2. Students will receive a basic introduction to fundamental situational spoken English skills in this 8-week course through pair and small group work, guided/modeled instruction and class activities.
3. To give an introductory integrated survey of all key basic speaking skills, with an emphasis on practical skills that will have a direct impact on students' academic, professional, and personal lives.
4. This course is focused on developing students' self-confidence in their speaking abilities and on fostering enthusiasm for using spoken English. This self-confidence will serve as a solid foundation for continued study at DGUT and into their professional lives.
